

Comi Elected Warrior Head

Baul D. Comi, Purple-heart veteran of the Korean wars, became the first student in El Camino college's eight-year history elected to wield the presidential gavel for two terms as the result of elections last week.

Elected to serve in student body offices with the Redondo beach residents were Larry Broderick, vice-president; Albert J. Dinger, commissioner of activities; Mac H. McClary, commissioner of assemblies, and Jim Reynolds, commissioner of athletics.

Nancy Le Sanders, Marylou Sellman, Rose Latallade, and Shirley Johnson were named as officers of the Associated Women students. Richard D. Crocker will head the Associated men's Students, while Bill Clement will be vice-president.

Badgers to Gather

Ex-Wisconsinites will gather for a winter reunion at Sycamore Grove Park in Los Angeles on Saturday, Feb. 12 at 2 p.m., Charles C. Bishop, president, announced yesterday.

ELECTION HOPEFULS . . . Student Council Presidential Aspirants George Hurley, left, and Joe Fazio, each try to persuade Cynthia Easley that they are deserving of her "X" at student elections tomorrow. They hold their list of qualifications for her study. A full slate of student officers will be selected for the coming semester. Cynthia currently is vice-president, and is in charge of the election.

THS Elections

Fazio, Hurley Vie for Prexy

Pre-election jitters are floating around Torrance High School today as aspirants for a multitude of student offices round out their campaigning for tomorrow's elections.

Joe Fazio and George Hurley have tossed their names into the hat for the No. 1 job on campus, that of president of the Student Council.

Outcome of the balloting for council, class and boys and girls league posts won't be revealed until tomorrow night, at an Election Dance in the girls gymnasium.

Run-off elections, in the event any are required, will be held Monday.

Several of the top jobs are virtually filled prior to elections with only one candidate seeking the job.

Sherwood Tiernan is assured of the vice-presidency, as are Marylou Sass, commissioner of records; Joan Laskaris, commissioner of finance; Linda Thistle, commissioner of pep;

Tom Cavanaugh, boys' league president; and Larry Lippincott, Junior Class president.

The complete list of class and boys-girls league candidates appeared in Monday's HERALD.

Both Seniors

Fazio and Hurley both are seniors, scheduled to graduate in June.

Fazio presently is Senior Class president and has been a Boys' League officer. He was 1954 representative to the American Legion's Boys' State, and is a member of the Tartar Knights, and the Key Club.

TUNING UP . . . The South Bay Civic Symphony, under the baton of Elyse Aehle, practices for tonight's presentation of "Peter and the Wolf," as screen, radio, and TV star Rosemary DeCamp tells the old story.

He resides at 3721 W. 177th St.

Hurley currently is Boys' League President, and has held various league offices. He is a member of the Tartar Knights, Varsity Club, and is president of the Key Club and the Scholarship Society.

He lives at 212 Via La Circula.

LAKE COUNT
Maine is said to contain 2,465 lakes and large ponds.

'Peter and Wolf' Planned Tonight

Sixteen Torrance residents will appear in the South Bay Civic Symphony's presentation of "Peter and the Wolf" tonight in Redondo Union High School Auditorium at 8:15. Rosemary DeCamp will narrate the story.

Beside the narration, the work includes solo parts for flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, horns, tympani, and strings. Also to be presented are the violin solo, "Adoration," and the "Overture to der Freischutz" and "The Blue Danube Waltzes."

Elyse Aehle, of Palos Verdes, is conductor, assisted by Lawrence Willey, of Torrance. Torrance residents appearing in the concert include Miss DeCamp, the wife of Judge John A. Shidler; Katherine Landon, Rosalie Eggleston, Louis Higginbotham, and Belia Embree, violinists; Margaret Chandler, Lloyd Hodges, Lillian Harding,

Couple Hurt in Crash

Several persons were injured in a traffic crash at Main and 165th St., Saturday night. Taken to Harbor General Hospital were Albert Read, 56, of 9019 W. 175th St., and Charlene Read, 57, same address. Other driver, Howard Barcus, 29, of 18702 Wall St., received minor hurts.

INCOME TAX AID SLATED

Confused Torranites who want help with the federal income tax forms have been offered a helping hand.

A representative of the Bureau of Internal Revenue will be at the Chamber of Commerce offices from 9 to 4:30 on Feb. 21, 23, 24 and 25 to offer guidance in making out the annual forms.

On Mar. 30, a representative of the state will aid persons who need help with the state income tax forms.
